Social consciousness is consciousness shared by individuals within a society. According to Karl Marx, human beings enter into certain productive, or economic, relations and these relations lead to a form of social consciousness. Marx said: "In the social production of their life, men enter into definite relations that are indispensable and independent of their will; these relations of ...

By Richard H. Hersh and Carol Geary Schneider Higher education must do more to emphasize the development of personal and social responsibility as core outcomes of a liberal education, and robust assessments of these outcomes must be developed. The time is right for a visible national effort to advance these goals.
